For Comments
Bill,

Here is another case where P&PD personnel are singled out for having gone that "extra mile" in satisfying the needs of our customers. The quick reaction of [REDACTED] to this short-fused requirement is the kind of responsiveness that makes this Organization special. My thanks to them both.

[REDACTED]
DANIEL C. KING
Director of Logistics

On Saturday, 22 January 1983, [] were called at home and asked to come into work on a special job. The job was for [] of DCI Leg. Council.
[] asked that the Photo Branch process and print several rolls of B/W film. This film was the property of Sen. Patrick Leahy who had just returned from a TDY and wanted the film processed as soon as possible. We were assured by [] that this film had great intelligence value, and the request for service had the blessing of the DCI.

I must express my sincere appreciation for your willingness to come in on Saturday to prepare the prints from my Central America trip. I needed those photos for a Monday morning press conference, and I knew of no other way to have them available by Sunday evening so I could have them for an early morning flight to Vermont.

Coming in on Saturday was a considerable inconvenience, and I want you to know how grateful I am. The prints were excellent and I made good use of them.

Sincerely,

PATRICK J. LEAHY
